RG104 E-1 Box 162

Princeton, New Jersey.
26 Feb. 1890.

On Friday Feb. 7th, I passed through the "Mint", having a small package in my hand to mail, I dropped it in the U.S. mail-box in the vestibule. Nothing has since been heard from it, I have thought that possibly the box in the vestibule was in disuse & that the aforesaid package, had never been taken by the postman. Will you be so kind as to inform me on this point? The address was John E. Adams
41 Hanover St
Lynn
Mass.

Very truly Yours,
Geo. T. Berry.

Reply sent Feb. 28.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 162

Princeton, New Jersey,
February 26, 1890.

On Friday February 7th, I passed through the "Mint", & having a small package in my hand to mail, I dropped it in the U.S. mail-box in the vestibule. Nothing has since been heard from it, & I have thought that possibly the box in the vestibule was in disuse & that the aforesaid package had never been taken by the postman. Will you be so kind as to inform me on this point? The address was John E. Adams. 45 Hanover St. Lynn, Mass.

Very truly yours,
Geo. T. Berry

Reply sent Feb. 28.